UP WENT O'CONNOR ON HIS WEDDING DAY.

A NEW
COMIC SONG
By BODINE
AND MAYWOOD.

Author of,
"FLY YOU BLACKBIRDS FLY."
"THE DEACON WENT ASTRAY"
"DORIS, THE VILLAGE MAIDEN." &c

CHORUS.

Up went O'Connor, and it was his wedding day,
Up went O'Connor as he pushed the clouds away,
He spent his honeymoon all alone in a balloon,
And it rained on his new wedding suit.

Copyright for all Countries.

Price 4/-

LONDON:
CHARLES SHEARD & CO. Music Publishers and Printers, 192 HIGH HOLBORN, W.C.
The very latest issue of HEMY'S PIANOFORTE TUTOR, is the SEYMOUR SMITH Edition.
BUY NO OTHER.

CHICAGO, U.S.A. THE S. BRAINARD'S SONS' COM'Y.
H.G. BANKS, LIB.

UP WENT O'CONNOR ON HIS WEDDING DAY.

WORDS BY LESTER BODINE.

MUSIC BY GEO: MAYWOOD.

VOICE. Moderato.

PIANO. mf

mf

1. One morning Pat O'-Con-nor was as hap-py as could be, And
 2. His whiskers al-most caught on fire as he went past the sun, And 3. She then found Kel-ly and exclaim'd, "Oh! what made you do that?" But

rit. mf

start-ed out to mar-ry his own Ma-ry Ann Ma-gee; John when the stars be-gan to shoot, he dodged them one by one; "O'- he re-plied, "Now, can't you see he's talk-ing thro' his hat?" For cresc.

Kel - ly met him on the street, and said, "Shake hands, old man; Al -
 - Con - nor, you're a gon - er!" sang the birds that pass'd his way, And years she watch'd and wait - ed for O' - Con - nor to come down; His cresc.

f rit.

tho' you won the girl from me, let's drink to Ma - ry Ann!" O' - when he met a thunder storm, he tho't 'twas time to pray. In - prolonged dis - ap - pearance was the talk of all the town. Then

f mf accel.

- Con - nor took a drop too much, they drank till aft - er - noon, Then
 - side his hat he placed a note be - fore he hit the sky, And Kel - ly tried to win her love, but 'ere she made re - ply, Up -

mf accel.

Up went O'Connor.

both went to the cir - cles - grounds to see the big balloon; And dropped it down up - on the earth to bid his friends good - by; He
- on a flash of light - ning rode a ghost up in the sky; 'Twas when he got in that bal - loon, Pat soon lost ev - 'ry hope, For sent it "care of Miss Ma - gee," and she received the same, He that of Pat O' - Con - nor, and his clothes were wringing wet, John Kel - ly did - n't do a thing but go and cut the rope!

told her why the bridegroom that she looked for nev - er came.
Kel - ly near - ly died of fright - they say he's run - ning yet!

CHORUS Allegretto.

Up went O' - Con - nor, and it was his wed - ding day,

Up went O' - Con - nor as he pushed the clouds a - way; He spent his hon - ey - moon all a - lone in a balloon, And it rained on his new wed - ding suit. 1. 2. suit.

ff mf ff mf cresc. rit. fz

Up Went O'Connor on his Wedding Day.

Words by LESTER BODINE.

Music by GEO. MAYWOOD.

Key F. Moderato. mf

1. One morn - ing Pat O'-Con-nor was as hap - py as could be, And start - ed out to mar - ry his own Ma - ry Ann Ma - gee; John Kel - ly met him on the street, and said, "Shake hands, old man; Al - - though you won the girl from me, let's drink to Ma - ry Ann!" O'-Con - nor took a drop too much, they drank till af - ter - noon, Then both went to the cir - cus - ground to see the big bal - loon; And when he got in that bal-loon, Pat soon lost ev - 'ry hope, For Kel - ly did - n't do a thing but go and cut the rope.

§ REFRAIN. Allegretto.
Up went O'-Con - nor, and it was his wed - ding day, Up went O'-Con - nor as he push'd the clouds a-way; He spent his ho - ney-moon all a - lone in a bal-loon, And it rain'd on his new wedding suit. suit.

2.

His whiskers almost caught on fire as he went past the sun,
And when the stars began to shoot, he dodged them one by one;
"O'Connor, you're a goner!" sang the birds that passed that way,
And when he met a thunderstorm, he thought 'twas time to pray.
Inside his hat he placed a note before he hit the sky,
And dropped it down upon the earth to bid his friends good bye;
He sent it "care of Miss Magee," and she received the same,
He told her why the bridegroom that she looked for never came.

CHORUS—Up went O'Connor, &c.

3.

She then found Kelly, and exclaimed, "Oh! what made you do that?"
But he replied, "Now, can't you see he's talking through his hat?"
For years she watched and waited for O'Connor to come down;
His prolonged disappearance was the talk of all the town,
Then Kelly tried to win her love, but 'ere she made reply,
Upon a flash of lightning rode a ghost up in the sky.
'Twas that of Pat O'Connor, and his clothes were wringing wet, John Kelly nearly died of fright—they say he's running yet!

CHORUS—Up went O'Connor, &c.

PRICE 2/- CHAS. SHEARD & CO.'S 2/- PRICE
EACH. VERY LATEST AND POPULAR EACH.
COMIC & OTHER SONGS
FOR SMOKING CONCERTS, &c.

THE LITTLE WIDOW

Lottie Collins in Pantomime at Prince of Wales Theatre, Liverpool
The Terror of Paralyzed Alley (Parody on "The Sunshine of Paradise Alley") ... Geo. Beauchamp and Chas. Clark
That Grand Old Song, ... Mr. Clement Stewart, with the Moore and Burgess Minstrels

HONEY, LOVE ME, DO! (Coon Song)

Ada Blanche and Decima Moore in "Aladdin" at Drury Lane Theatre
"It is a curious thing in a pantomime that the prettiest and most effective scenes are those of sentiment and song between Aladdin (played with the utmost spirit and vivacity by Miss Ada Blanche) and the Princess Balroubadour, who finds a poetical and delightful representative in Miss Decima Moore. The duet between the pair of lovers, "Love Me, Honey, Do," admirably sung, was warmly encored. It constituted, indeed, the gem of the performance."—Daily Graphic.

"Miss Ada Blanche could not be more sprightly, alert, and altogether delightful than she was on Saturday, and it would be difficult to find a more charming princess than Miss Decima Moore. Amongst other incidents, the two sing a most melodious duet of the popular plantation song description, "Honey, Love Me, Do." This is the sort of thing one looks for in Mr. Oscar Barrett's pantomime—really pretty music, well sung—and to this charming song the fullest justice is done by Miss Ada Blanche, an altogether delightful Aladdin, and Miss Decima Moore, a graceful and fascinating Princess."—Standard.

"Moreover, the prettiest air in the pantomime—a lullaby, with a languidly swinging drone from the reed instruments—"Love Me, Honey, Do," is allotted to the two lovers, who sing it so prettily that within a month all the drawing-room vocalists within the ten-mile radius will be desperately occupied in murdering it."—Clarion.

It's Sunshiny Weather because we're together. The latest success of the Authors of "Sunshine of Paradise Alley" ... Everybody

I'll not go out with Reilly any more (Irish Comic Song and Chorus) ... Ella Dean

You're so good, Daddy ... Such a Timid Little Thing... Sung in "The Belle of Cairo" at the Court Theatre

THOU HAST A HEART I KNOW (The hit of the Birmingham Pantomimes) ... Alexandra Dagmar

Please Mr. Santa Claus, don't forget me ... Master Herbert la Martine

Love's Parting ... Mr. Geo. Morgan with the Moore and Burgess Minstrels

Telling the old Tale of Love (Waltz Ballad and Refrain) ... Braubury Town. Another "Going to Market"

Those Wedding Bells shall not ring out! (Grand Descriptive Ballad) Aldrich Libbey

Blue Eyes ... I don't Kiss Boys (Serio-Comic Solo or Duet) ... Miss May Clarke

Louiser (Comic Coon Song) ... Keep a-inchin', a-inchin' along ... The hit of "A Trip to Chinatown"

Back 'mid the Clover and the Corn ... The hit of "The Old Homestead"

MY GAL'S A HIGH BORN LADY ... Stella May and Patty Yole

Girl with a naughty wink ... Take it home and give it to the baby ... Louise Hamilton

I tell my banjo all ... You don't have to marry the girl ... Ella Chapman

NOW WE SHAN'T BE LONG ... Geo. Beauchamp

I arrived in time to get it ... It's all right now ... Harry Paulton in "Dorcas"

Only one girl in the world for me (Parody) ... Tom Callaghan

I don't love a-nobody ... { America's Representative } ... Miss Daisy Mayer

In my dear old home to-night { Coon Impersonator } ... My Little Sweetheart May (Ballad) ... C. H. Kenney

There are moments when one wants to be alone ... The Nineteenth Century Boys (Popular March, Song & Chorus) ... Sisters Levey

LADY TOM (When my hubby is Sir Tom) Sung nightly to six and seven encores at the Gaiety Theatre by Miss Connie Ediss in "My Girl." A Gentlemen's Version now added ... Miss Flossie

Julienne ... Look to that old spot ... Chauncy Alcott's "Home" Song

Return to the old home, boy ... DENNY MURPHY'S DAUGHTER NELL ... Josephine Henley & Sisters Don

Music in the park ... Sunday Night in Lover's Lane. The successor to "Sunshine of Paradise Alley" ... The Three Sisters Hawthorne

Come and kiss me, honey dear (Coon Song) by Percy Gaunt

Author of "Push them clouds away," &c., &c.

HONEY, DOES YER LOVE YER MAN? ... Miss Fanny Wentworth

A Red Hot Member, or (Oh! dem Colored Ladies) ... Miss Daisy Mayer

Some ... I'm thinking of home to-night ... Miss Kate James

Doris ... Over the left ... Geo. Raycott's great Whistling Song

Old Pals up-to-date ... A night at the play ... Miss Millie Linden and Chas. Osborne

A LITTLE PIECE OF ORANGE PEEL ... Miss Peggy Pryde

She Always Dressed in Black ... Fannie Leslie

I AIN'T A-GOING TO TELL ... Alec Hurley

Special Scotchman ... It don't seem like the same old smile (Ballad) ... James Thornton

'Nuff said ... Whiskey ... T. E. Dunville

The World Turned Inside Out (Penetrating-Photo-Rays) ... Pat Rafferty

The Marquis de Leuville's Latest

The Fireman's Dream ... ONLY ONE GIRL IN THE WORLD FOR ME ... George Lashwood

Bessie Wentworth, Peggy Pryde, &c., &c.

Who Stole my Pug-wug-wug ... The Early Bird's Reply ... Florrie West

THE SWEETEST STORY EVER TOLD ... Moore and Burgess Minstrels

Go 'Way Trouble (Coon Song) ... Just tell them that you saw me (The rage of America) ... Jennie Valmore

I O U ... SHE'S THE DAUGHTER OF OFFICER PORTER ... The Sisters Hawthorne

One of the Best ... One Night Only ... Harry Anderson

YOU SHAN'T COME AND PLAY IN OUR YARD ... T. E. Dunville

The Demon Up to Date ... News from the War ... Sisters Preston

Tom Maguire

WON'T YOU COME TO MY TEA PARTY ...

Why should he lie in the white man's grave (suggested by the recent death lamented of His Royal Highness Prince Henry of Battenberg) ... Tom Maguire

I'm Mad with Mary Morrison by author of "I don't want to play in your yard" ... May Clarke

LOVE LINGERS YET ... May Clarke

I'LL FIND MY SWEETHEART AGAIN ... Florrie West

I cannot find my little pussy cat ... John James O'Reilly ... Florrie West

The Judge let him off ... Muzzling (The Marquis de Leuville's Plea for the dogs) ... Arthur Rigby

GOOD NIGHT. Companion to "Baby," Fred Sinclair in Pantomime at Dublin

The Donniest Don of the Day ... Chas. Godfrey

THE SUNSHINE OF PARADISE ALLEY, Sisters Hawthorne and Levey, &c.

When Maggie walks down the Aisle (Song and Dance) ... Chas. Deane and Ada Fawn

When they go to bye-bye ... The Walking Wedding ... Chas. Godfrey

The Tra-la-la-la Brigade ... Baby wants the moon (Lullaby) ... George Ripon

Over the Get There Road ... The Band Played on ... In most Pantomimes

I have! I have! ... Her Christian Name was Mary, but she took the "R" away ... The Dalys and others

That Touches the Spot ... Come along with me ... George Ripon

Girl Wanted! ... Mo Gonnigle winked his eye ... Walter Kuno

PAT MALONE FORGOT THAT HE WAS DEAD ... Harry Randall

A Stroke of the Pen (Descriptive) ... Climb the Golden Fence (Comic Song) ... Charles Deane

I DON'T WANT TO PLAY IN YOUR YARD ... R. G. Knowles

The Maid in the Moon ... Laugh yo' little niggers, laugh! ... Irish Comics

Sammy, my old Friend, Sam (From "Dorcas") ... YOU'LL HAVE TO MARRY ME NOW ... Irish Comics

Sweethearts again ... Down by the Farmyard Gate ... Lottie Elliot

I'll be true to my Honey ... ADIEU, BUT NOT FAREWELL ... Sisters Hawthorne

Bells of Fate ... Where I am lodging now ... Julie Mackey

When Enoch, he Knocked, she Knocked Enoch ... Possumala Dance or "My H O N E Y"

LEADER OF THE COMPANY B ... Hattie Delaro's Piccaninnies, &c.

Another Little Coon in Town ... Isabella ... The Henderson and Stanley Quartette

It's alright but it's awkward ... Larry Mulligan ... Vesta Tilley

Go to sleep my Honey (Plantation Song) ... Hustle Children (Coon Song) ... Princess Pauline

While the dance goes on ... Eileen Aroon ... Irish Comics

Picture 84 ... Don't go Jack ... Kate James

Deenah, Dinah, Do (Coon Song) ... Standing on the Corner didn't mean no harm (Comic Coon Song) ... Everybody

Percy Denton & Harry Star

The Coons are all a Dreaming

Another "Come where my Love lies dreaming" ... I've been to gay Patee ... Miss Alice Atherton

Sweet Marie ... Casey, oh Casey ... Raymon Moore

What d'ye think of Hoolihan ... Now will You be Good? ... Miss Kate Carney

Won't you be my Sweetheart? ... MAMIE COME KISS YOUR HONEY BOY ... Barclay and Perkins

There are others ... HIS PARENTS HAVEN'T SEEN HIM SINCE ... Ada Reeve

The Hot-footed Bee ... The Naughty Sporty Boys ... Alexandra Dagmar

The Old Stage Door ... The Coon from the Moon ... Florrie West

THE SHIP I LOVE (another Comrades) ... Gallery and Boxes ... Harry Paulton, in "Jaunty Jane Shore"

Do! Do! My Huckleberry, Do! ... Can't lose me, Charlie! ... Eugene Stratton

Mamie, my Darling ... Susie Tusie ... Miss Kate James

I long to see the girl I left behind ... Little Alabama Coon ... Eugene Stratton

IRISHMAN IN FRANCE ... The Grass Widower (Oh! what a day I'm going to have to-morrow) ... Nellie Richards

Never Introduce your Donah to a Pal (Coster Song) ... I'm rather too old for it now (Chas. Coborn's favourite song) ... George Ripon

The Shopwalker (Walk this way! Walk this way!) ... Three Leaves of Shamrock from dear old Mother's Grave ... Dan Leno

A Soldier's Letter (Irish Ballad. A song that touches every heart) ... I COULDN'T HELP BUT LAUGH (Banjo Song) ... Gus Elen

Spare the old mud Cabin ... Never more ... Dan Leno

The Railway Guard ... Just to pay your respects to Maguiness ... Dan Leno

Not the Baby, but the Bicycle ... Take it on, Boys ... W. J. Ashcroft

I'm in love with the Man in the Moon ... Up I came with my little lot ... Chirgwin

The Waiter ... Dan Leno

The very latest issue of Hemy's Pianoforte Tutor is the Seymour Smith Edition.

BUY NO OTHER.

London: CHAS. SHEARD & Co., Music Publishers and Printers, 192, High Holborn, W.C.